

Who Is Trevor Turnbull

Trevor Turnbull has over 10 years of sales, online marketing and professional speaking experience. As a speaker, Trevor has presented to a wide audience on the value of social media and how it has changed the way people do business.

His diverse background and “non-techie” presentation style allows him to bridge the generational gap between the “old” and the “new” way of doing business. His unique approach helps his clients drive sales, increase revenue and build better business relationships.

Trevor is the President of T3 CONNECT Sports Marketing, COO of Sports Networker & Sports Executives Association, the lead LinkedIn trainer for Route Three Marketing and co-producer of a Passion Profits project called ZeroToMoneyMakingWebsite.com.

Trevor is a lifelong sports fan that has competed at a high level of competitive sports including participation in the CIS University Cup as a member of the University of Saskatchewan Huskies hockey program. He is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan – College of Commerce program with a major in Marketing.
